THANK YOU

FOR READING TO HELP REFUGEE CHILDREN AROUND THE WORLD

*Every page we read
and every £100 we raise together can help create a space
for a child like Afika
to learn for a whole year.*

Afika was born in Myanmar but her family had to leave their home when some dangerous soldiers came to her village. She now lives in a refugee camp in Bangladesh with her family. When a school supported by Children on the Edge, opened close to their shelter Afika's father enrolled her straight away so that she could start learning.

Afika loves school and enjoys reading. She wants to study to become a doctor when she grows up.
