THANK YOU

FOR READING TO HELP REFUGEE CHILDREN AROUND THE WORLD

Every page we read and every £100 we raise together can help create a space for a child like Achimida to learn for a whole year.

Achimida is 11 years old and had to run away from her home in Myanmar when some dangerous soldiers came to her village. She now lives in a refugee camp in Bangladesh with her family. She thought she wouldn't be able to learn again, but Children on the Edge started a classroom right next door to her shelter.

She has learned reading, writing, and drawing with a very kind teacher and loves to play happily with her friends.
